	CLASSIFICATION S DAST 25X1
	dast Germany 25X1 REPORT NO.
OUNTRY	Soviet Supply Installations in the GDR
PIC	DOVED TO THE PARTY OF THE PARTY
AND ADDRESS OF THE PARTY OF THE	25X1 = 6311017
VALUATION_	25X1 PLACE OBTAINED 25X1 = 634017.
ATE OF CO	November 1953 to February 1954
ATE OBTAIN	25X1 26 April 1954
EFERENCES
AGES	ENULUS (NO. & TYPE)
REMARKS
FOR THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPER
$25°C。《本·哈···································	And the second s
Designation of the second second second second second second
25X1
25X1 25X1	Gorgast near Kuestrin, which was constructed for the VP, was almost completed. A wooden kitchen building with administrative rooms, a wooden administrative building, a recreation building, two buildings for quarters, administrative building, a recreation building, two buildings for quarters,
25X1	completed. A wooden kitchen building with administrative rooms, a wooden administrative outling, a recreation building, two buildings for quarters, each 25 meters long, four watch towers with searchlights and a coal bunker were erected outside the moat. The whole installation was surrounded by a wire fence. The casemates in which artillery ammunition had been stored during the war had a 4-meter concrete ceiling covered by a 1-meter layer of earth. 1
25X1	completed. A wooden kitchen building with administrative rooms, a wooden administrative building, a recreation building, two buildings for quarters, each 25 meters long, four watch towers with searchlights and a coal bunker were erected outside the moat. The whole installation was surrounded by a wire fence. The casemates in which artillery ammunition had been stored during the war had a 4-meter concrete ceiling covered by a 1-meter layer
25X1	completed. A wooden kitchen building with administrative rooms, a wooden administrative outling, a recreation building, two buildings for quarters, each 25 meters long, four watch towers with searchlights and a coal bunker were erected outside the moat. The whole installation was surrounded by a wire fence. The casemates in which artillery ammunition had been stored during the war had a 4-meter concrete ceiling covered by a 1-meter layer of earth. In early December, the depot for explosives at Gorgast had not yet been taken over by the VP. Finishing work was done by electricians. At the beginning of December, about 9 x 85-mm AA guns, several 37-mm AA guns and several AT guns were under repair in the Strausberg ordnance repair shop. Rifles and submachine guns were repaired in hall No 1. The optical section was also housed in hall No 1. A monthly quote of about 12 guns of medium and heavy caliber were repaired at the workshop.
25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1	completed. A wooden kitchen building with administrative rooms, a wooden administrative ouilding, a recreation building, two buildings for quarters, each 25 meters long, four watch towers with searchlights and a coal bunker were erected outside the moat. The whole installation was surrounded by a wire fence. The casemates in which artillery ammunition had been stored during the war had a 4-meter concrete ceiling covered by a 1-meter layer of earth. In early December, the depot for explosives at Gorgast had not yet been taken ever by the VP. Finishing work was done by electricians. At the beginning of December, about 9 x 85-mm AA guns, several 27-mm AA guns and several AT guns were under repair in the Strausberg ordnance repair shop. Rifles and submachine guns were repaired in hall No 1. The optical section was also housed in hall No 1. A monthly quote of about 12 guns of medium and heavy caliber were repaired at the workshop. In mid-December, the ordnance repair shop at Str usberg was operated by about 80 troops who were red-cordered black spaulets with artillery insignia. Mortars of all caliber, small arms. AA guns and AT guns of various caliber
25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1	completed. A wooden kitchen building with administrative rooms, a wooden administrative outliding, a recreation building, two buildings for quarters, each 25 meters long, four watch towers with searchlights and a coal bunker were erected outside the most. The whole installation was surrounded by a wire fence. The casemates in which artillery ammunition had been stored during the war had a 4-meter concrete ceiling covered by a 1-meter layer of earth. In early December, the depot for explosives at Gorgast had not yet been taken over by the VP. Finishing work was done by electricians. At the beginning of December, about 9 x 85-mm AA guns, several 37-mm AA guns and several AT guns were under repair in the Strausberg ordnance repair shop. Rifles and submachine guns were repaired in hall No 1. The optical section was also housed in hall No 1. A monthly quots of about 12 guns of medium and heavy caliber were repaired at the workshop. In mid-December, the ordnance repair shop at Strausberg was operated by the workshop.
25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1	completed. A wooden kitchen building with administrative rooms, a recreation building, two buildings for quarters, each 25 meters long, four watch towers with searchlights and a coal bunker were erected outside the moat. The whole installation was surrounded by a wire fence. The casemates in which artillery ammunition had been stored during the war had a 4-meter concrete ceiling covered by a 1-meter layer of earth. In early December, the depot for explosives at Gorgast had not yet been taken over by the VP. Finishing work was done by electricians. At the beginning of December, about 9 x 85-mm AA guns, several 37-mm AA guns and several AT guns were under repair in the Strausberg ordnance repair shop. Rifles and submachine guns were repaired in hall No 1. The optical section was also housed in hall No 1. A monthly quote of about 12 guns of medium and heavy caliber were repaired at the workshop. In nid-December, the ordnance repair shop at Strausberg was operated by about 80 troops who were red-cordered black spaulets with artillery insignia. Nortars of all calther, small arms. AA guns and AT guns of various caliber were repaired at the shop. At the beginning of December, a VP ordnance workshop subordinate to the HVDVP was located in Schoenebeck on the Elbe River. VP Neister Strauss (fnu) was in otherwall of the ordnance shop.
25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1	completed. A wooden kitchen building with administrative rooms, a wooden administrative building, a recreation building, two buildings for quarters, each 25 meters long, four watch towers with searchlights and a coal bunker were erected outside the moat. The whole installation was surrounded by a wire fence. The casemates in which artillery ammunition had been stored during the war had a 4-meter concrete ceiling covered by a 1-meter layer of earth. In early December, the depot for explosives at Gorgast had not yet been taken over by the VP. Finishing work was done by electricians. At the beginning of December, about 9 x 85-mm AA guns, several 37-mm AA guns and several AT guns were under repair in the Strausberg ordnance repair shop. Rifles and submachine guns were repaired in hall No 1. The optical section was also housed in hall No 1. A monthly quote of about 12 guns of medium and heavy caliber were repaired at the workshop. In mid-December, the ordnance repair shop at Strusberg was operated by about 80 troops who were red-cordered black epaulets with artillery insignia. Mortars of all caliber, small arms. AA guns and AT guns of various caliber were repaired at the shop. At the beginning of December, a VP ordnance workshop sucordinate to the HVDVP was legated in Schoenebeck on the Elbe River. VP Neister Strauss (fnu) was
25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1	completed. A wooden kitchen building with administrative roots, a wooden administrative building, a recreation building, two buildings for quarters, each 25 meters long, four watch towers with searchlights and a coal bunker were erected outside the most. The whole installation was surrounded by a wire fence. The casemates in which artillery ammunitien had been stored during the war had a 4-meter concrete ceiling covered by a 1-meter layer of earth. In early December, the depot for explosives at Gorgast had not yet been taken ever by the VP. Finishing work was done by electricians. At the beginning of December, about 9 x 85-mm AA guns, several 37-mm AA guns and several AT guns were under repair in the Strausberg ordnance repair shop. Rifles and submachine guns were repaired in hall No 1. The optical section was also housed in hall No 1. A monthly quote of about 12 guns of medium and heavy caliber were repaired at the workshop. In mid-December, the ordnance repair shop at Strausberg was operated by about 80 troops who were red-ordered black spaulets with artillery insignia. Morters of all caliber, small arms. AA guns and AT guns of various caliber were repaired at the shop. At the beginning of December, a VP ordnance workshop sucordinate to the HVDVP was located in Schoenebeck on the Elbe River. VP Heister Strauss (fnu) was in charge of the ordnance shop. The depot was supplied with automatic weapons by the KVP ordnance depot in Kirchmoeser.4
25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1	completed. A wooden kitchen building with administrative roots, a wooden administrative building, a recreation building, two buildings for quarters, each 25 meters long, four watch towers with searchlights and a coal bunker were erected outside the most. The whole installation was surrounded by a wire fence. The casemates in which artillery ammunition had been stored during the war had a 4-meter concrete ceiling covered by a 1-meter layer of earth. In early December, the depot for explosives at Gorgast had not yet been taken over by the VP. Finishing work was done by electricians. At the beginning of December, about 9 x 85-mm AA guns, several 37-mm AA guns and several AT guns were under repair in the Strausberg ordnance repair shop. Rifles and submachine guns were repaired in hall No 1. The optical section was also housed in hall No 1. A monthly quote of about 12 guns of medium and heavy caliber were repaired at the workshop. In mid-December, the ordnance repair shop at Strausberg was operated by about 80 troops who were red-ordered black spaulets with artillery insignia. Mortars of all caliber, small erms. AA guns and AT guns of various caliber were repaired at the shop. At the beginning of December, a VP ordnance workshop supordinate to the HVDVP was located in Schoenebeck on the Elbe River. VP Neister Strauss (fnu) was in charge of the ordnance shop. The wild December A in the depot was supplied with automatic weapons by the KVP ordnance depot in Kirchmoeser.

25X1

25X1

SECRET.

		4.00
25X	.1
	្ឋ ខ.	In early November, the former concentration camp in Ravensbrueck near Fuerstenberg/Navel was occupied to capacity. Numerous trucks loaded with supply were daily seen entering and leaving the installation. In mid-November, a tank repair shop was located on the premises of the fibrin factory in Fuerstenberg/Navel. 5
	9.	In early November, about 50 field kitchens stood ready for shipment in the VVB Sanar Plant for kitchen and hearth installation located on Strasse-Der-Befreiung in Koenigsbruck.
25X1 25X1		In late December, the former German army clothing depot No II in Bernau still quartered a Soviet supply unit whose personnel wore red-bordered black epaulets. Large quantities of supply can be stored in the five large warehouses. A motor vehicle repair shop was housed on the premises of the former Bergmann-Borsig Plant adjacent to the clothing depot.
25X1 25X1	1
	11.	vulcanizing shop in Gransee seemed to additionally house a motor vehicle workshop. 7
25X1 25X1 25X1		In mid-November, a large Soviet clothing depot was located on the premises of the former Deutsche-Geraete Bau installation in Eurgstaedt. Another depot storing signal equipment was located near the viaduct at Eurgstaedt railroad station. A medical depot was stationed in "arkersdorf in mid-November. German motor vehicles hauled drugs and medical equipment to the Soviet depot.
	13.
25X1 25X1	1.	Comment. The enlargement for the KVP of Gorgast ammunition depot was reported previously. The assignment of the depot could not be determined.
25X1	2.	Comment. The motor vehicles belong to the GOFG and First Gds Mech Army.
25X1	3.	Comment. Report again confirms the GOFG ordnance and equipment repair
25X1		anop.
25X1 25X1 25X1	40	Comment. Information is believed to refer to the former repair shop in Schoenebeck-Frohse which was turned over to the KVP. The subordination of the depot is unknown
25X1 25X1		Comment. The warehouse of the 5th Supply Unit of the Soviet trade section and the tank repair shop in Fuerstenberg are known.
25X1 25X1 25X1	6. [Comment. Bernau is known as clothing depot of the GOFG. The motor vehicle repair shop referred to probably is a troop workshop.
25X1 25X1	7.	Gomment. a motor vehicle repair unit of the Second Gds Mech Army.
		SECRET

 Approved For Release 	ついしょうしょうしょう		101070007.1
Approved i oi itelease	2003/00/01 .	CIA-INDF 00-000 TOA004	101010001-1

	25X1
SECRET		25X1
0.301631/	- 3 %

25X1 g. Forment. Information again confirms the clothing depot, signal depot and medical depot of the Eighth Gds Army in Burgstaedt and Markersdorf.

25X1 9. Comment. The VAB Anlagenbau Magdeburg, VEM, is known as special plant for electrical installations. It is possible that the trucks mentioned are being equipped with special devices to serve as equipment trucks for the KVP.

	25X1
SECRETA		